NEWS RELEASE

Friday, March 17, 2017

On 3/16/17 at 1:56 p.m., Norfolk Police responded to 2700 West Norfolk Avenue for a suspicious person call. Upon arrival, officers had contact with Tyler K. Pflug, 29, homeless. Pflug was given a written trespass warning and told to leave the property. Pflug began walking away in the parking lot. He then entered a pickup that was displaying the logo of a local business on it. The truck was a 2011 Chevrolet Siverado. Officers checked with the business and verified that Pflug was not to be in possession of the truck. Officers performed a traffic stop on the truck and again had contact with Pflug. They questioned him about the truck and verified with the Madison County Sheriff's Office that the truck was stolen on 3/15/17. Pflug was then arrested for felony theft and false reporting. The truck was valued at over $20,000. Pflug was housed in the Norfolk City Jail and later transferred to the Madison County Jail.
