PUBLIC SAFETY ANNOUNCEMENT – WINTER WEATHER

Winter weather is at our door once again with the chance of ice and blizzard-like conditions tonight into tomorrow. The conditions of the roads, streets, and sidewalks will deteriorate quickly with the mix of rain, snow, and wind that is expected with this storm. Keep your eyes on the weather and local news stations to stay updated on conditions during the storm. Practice caution and use your best judgement when driving and walking on the slick roadways and sidewalks.
