A BATTLE THAT BOTH SIDES WIN

Not all heroes wear badges and you don't have to be a police officer or firefighter to save lives. Did you know that you have the potential of saving three lives with the donation of just one pint of blood?

The Norfolk Fire and Norfolk Police Divisions will once again be hosting the annual "Battle of the Badges" blood drive to help save lives and the public is invited to respond to the call and donate blood.

Everyone who gives blood can designate whether the police or fire division will get credit for the donation. The only requirements are: good health, must be at least 17 years-old, weigh at least 110 pounds, and would like to help three people through a single pint of blood donated. All blood types are needed.

The American Red Cross Bus will be parked at 701 Koenigstein Avenue, Norfolk, NE 68701 from noon until 6 p.m. on Friday, June 22, 2018. Appointments can be made by calling either the Norfolk Fire Division at 402-844-2050, or the Norfolk Police Division 402-644-8700. Appointments can also be made online at redcrossblood.org. Walk-ins are also invited to participate.

No matter which division wins the war, everyone is a winner in this contest.
