INAUGURAL MLK DAY BREAKFAST

In celebration of the legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr., who boldly championed values such as equality, inclusion, civic responsibility, and strength in unity, an inaugural breakfast will be held in his honor.

On Monday, January 15, 2018, the Mayor's Diversity Council in partnership with Northeast Community College, is hosting the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Inaugural Breakfast at the Lifelong Learning Center on the Northeast campus in Norfolk. Doors will open at 6:30 a.m. with breakfast served beginning at 7 a.m. and will conclude at 8:15 a.m. The public is invited to the event, but because seating is limited RSVP's are required.

The featured speaker for the event is Vickie R. Young, president of the Omaha Branch of NAACP. Her aim in life is to empower those willing to contribute their unique skill set, expertise, and network towards positive social changes.

"This effort is focused on enhancing diversity and inclusion in the Norfolk area," said Mayor Josh Moenning. "Helping create a welcoming environment throughout our community, developing and building relationships, emphasizing the importance of diversity in our school systems, and engaging minority communities in the civic process."

This event is sponsored by US Bank, Center for Rural Affairs, Nebraska Public Power District, Elkhorn Valley Bank, Victory Road Assembly of God, Northeast Community College, Norfolk Area Chamber of Commerce, Ponca Tribe of Nebraska, Volk Farms, William and Vicki Coby, and the City of Norfolk.
