NEWS RELEASE

Thursday, January 24, 2019

On 1/23/19 at 6:55 a.m., Norfolk Fire & Rescue and Norfolk Police responded to an injury accident in the 2200 block of South 13th Street. A northbound 2002 Toyota Secuoia driven by Mu Lar Wah, 18, of Norfolk, lost control, crossed the median, and collided with a southbound vehicle. The southbound car was a 2007 Saturn driven by Mark Keenan, 56, of Norfolk. Both drivers sustained severe injuries. Keenan was air-ambulanced from the scene to Mercy Medical in Sioux City and Wah was transported to Faith Regional Hospital. The Norfolk Police accident investigation team was called in to investigate the accident. Several Nebraska State Patrol Troopers and several Madison County Sheriff's Deputies also assisted with the response. The accident remains under investigation.
