NEWS RELEASE

Wednesday, December 26, 2018

On 12/23/18 at 9:47 p.m., Norfolk Police were called to a business in the 1400 block of Riverside Boulevard for a suspicious vehicle. The reporting party described a car that was in the parking lot of the business and that the business was not open. There was also a female who was yelling and then left walking to the south. When officers arrived, they found the described vehicle parked in the lot. Officers had contact with the driver who was identified as Ashley M. Martin-Menard, 34, of Hastings. There was also another female in the backseat of the car who was identified as Brandy L. Wolford, 41, of Clarkson. A check of Wolford's license showed five active arrest warrants from Colfax and Platte counties. She was taken into custody. Officers also observed a single white pill sitting on the front passenger seat. Officers recovered the pill and identified it as Alprazolam. Martin-Menard did not have a prescription for the controlled medication. Martin-Menard was asked to step out of the vehicle. When doing so, she attempted to conceal or ingest a plastic bag inside her mouth. Officers prevented her from swallowing the bag and recovered it. The bag contained a crystal like substance that tested positive for methamphetamine. Martin-Menard was arrested for two counts of possession of a controlled substance – methamphetamine/alprazolam. Both females were housed in the Norfolk City Jail and later transferred to the Madison County Jail.
