NEWS RELEASE

Sunday, December 30, 2018

On 12/28/18, at 8:54 a.m., a Norfolk Police officer was on regular patrol. The officer checked the license plate of a vehicle and learned that the registered owner had an active Knox County arrest warrant. The car stopped at a local business in the 800 block of Norfolk Avenue and the officer had contact with the driver. The driver was identified as Coralee Jane Bedolla, 30, of Norfolk. The Knox County warrant for no insurance and improper parking was confirmed. She was then placed under arrest for the outstanding warrant. In a subsequent search of the vehicle, officers recovered a glass pipe with burnt residue from her purse. The pipe tested positive for methamphetamine. She was questioned about methamphetamine usage and arrested for possession of a controlled substance. She was housed in the Norfolk City Jail and later transferred to the Madison County Jail.
