NEWS RELEASE

Monday, April 15, 2019

On 4/13/19 at 4:24 p.m., Norfolk Police officers were called to a local pharmacy regarding a person trying to claim a fraudulent prescription. Officers had contact with the pharmacist who said that on 4/10/19 she received an order to fill a prescription for a named individual. The medication ordered was Phenergan with Codeine, a schedule V drug. The person calling in the prescription identified themselves as doctor from Omaha. The pharmacist was aware of a recent fraud where people were calling in fraudulent prescriptions. The pharmacist called the prescribing doctor's office and it was confirmed that this a not a valid prescription. When the person came to pick up the prescription, the pharmacy called the police. Officers then had contact with a male who was attempting to pick up the prescription. He was identified as Dominique T. Bell, 27, from Chicago. Bell was arrested for attempting to acquire or obtain possession of a controlled substance by theft misrepresentation, fraud, forgery, or deception. He was housed in the Norfolk City Jail and later transferred to the Madison County Jail.
